About Us

This Classroom Catalog proudly unites two trusted family-run companies, Crabtree Publishing and Seahorse Publishing, to deliver exceptional books and educational products for learners from preschool to sixth grade. We are dedicated to providing high-quality fiction and nonfiction in multiple languages, with a strong focus on inclusivity and diversity so that every child can see themselves in the stories we share.

Our books are brought to life with stunning photos and colorful illustrations, designed to captivate young minds. We also recognize the crucial role of parents and educators, which is why many of our titles include parent and teacher notes to support the reading experience and promote the science of reading. Together, we aim to nurture the next generation of confident readers and open the door to a world of imagination and learning.

Marlin Readers

31 titles

Marlin Phonics Readers are decodable fiction and nonfiction books specifically created for students to practice phonograms in longer text. Designed with the older reader in mind, they also use the Dyslexie font, which is specifically designed to enhance readability for those with dyslexia without detracting from the readability. Full color illustrations support comprehension and enhance the story. Marlin Readers also have exciting Full color photos, quizzes, and practice activities.

Blue Marlin Readers is the first level. Each book focuses on a single grapheme with a specific sound. For example, The Pie focuses on words spelled with “ie” with the long i sound. Each page has a limited number of sentences to encourage even the most reluctant reader to try out their new letter-sound knowledge on more challenging text. Full color illustrations support comprehension and enhance the story.

White Marlin Readers is for students who have learned a group of related phonograms. Each book includes words that have a related group of phonograms. For example, Natural Disasters provides practice with vowel + r phonograms of ar, er, ir, or, and ur.

Blue Marlin Readers GRL K-N

These books use the Dyslexie font to make reading easier for people with dyslexia.

I Read! You Read! Collection

I Read! You Read! books offer a fun and easy way to read with your child. Reading aloud with your child has many benefits. It expands vocabulary, sparks discussion, and promotes an emotional bond. Research shows that children who have books read aloud to them have improved language skills, leading to greater school success.

Look for these symbols to identify whose turn it is to read.

Helping My Child: A Guide to Supporting Reading

Many parents and caregivers would like to support their child with school, but do not have the tools. Helping My Child: A Guide to Supporting Reading provides information about the Science of Reading and the components of the reading process in a friendly way. Parents and caregivers will learn how to get support when their child is struggling. “The Words to Know” section translates the common terms and abbreviations heard from educators so parents and caregivers understand the language of reading education and can feel included in their child’s education.

PHONOLOGICAL AND PHONEMIC AWARENESS: HEARING SOUNDS IN WORDS

Phonological awareness and phonemic awareness are important pre-reading skills. They describe a child’s ability to hear, identify, and play with sounds in spoken language. These skills form an essential foundation for reading and writing development in second grade and beyond.

Children demonstrate phonological awareness when they recognize and manipulate, or change, parts of spoken words. Phonemic awareness is the last phonological awareness skill to develop. Children who have mastered phonemic awareness can hear, recognize, and play with the individual sounds, or phonemes, in spoken words.

PHONOLOGICAL AWARENESS MILESTONES

Ages 3 to 4	Produces real and pretend rhyming words
Ages 4 to 5	Claps or taps out syllables in words Recognizes words that begin with the same sound Segments or separates out each sound in words with three sounds Blends or combines individual sounds to produce words that have three sounds Counts the number of sounds in words that have three sounds
Ages 5 to 6	Segments or separates out each sound in words with four sounds Identifies the first and last sounds in a word Groups words with the same beginning sound Identifies which word does not rhyme in a set of three words Identifies which word is not the same in a set of three words
Ages 6 to 7	Deletes syllables from words when asked Deletes sounds from words when asked Substitutes syllables in words when asked Substitutes sounds in words when asked
Ages 7 to 8	Uses phonological awareness skills to spell words

ACTIVITIES FOR BUILDING PHONOLOGICAL AWARENESS

SWITCH IT

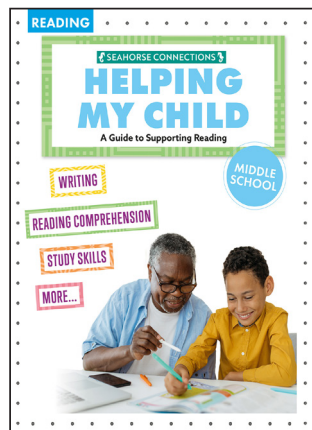

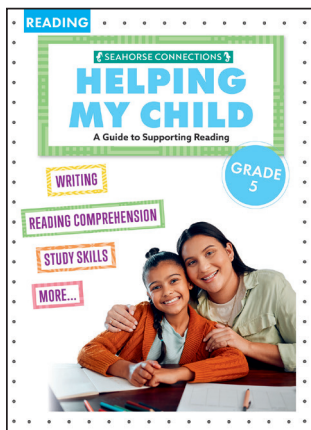

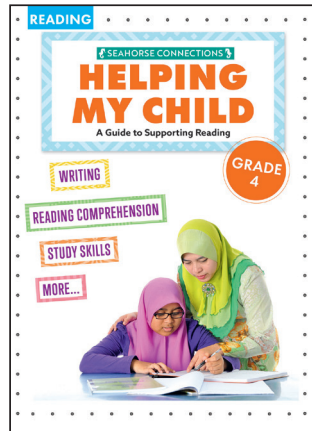

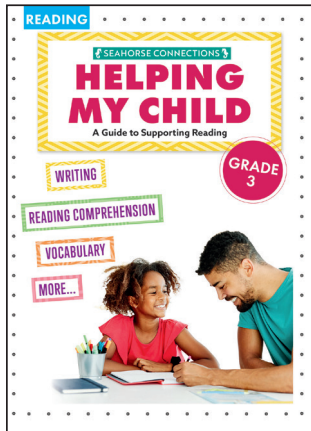

Think of a one-syllable word. Ask your child to change the beginning, middle, or ending sound in the word to make a new word. Use this example, reading letters shown in Parent: Change the /s/ sound in stop to /sh/. What is the new word?
Child: Shop.
Parent: Great job! Now, change the /s/ sound in float to /h/. What is the new word?
Child: Flat.
Parent: Excellent thinking. Try changing the /sk/ sound in sink to /ng/. What is the new word?
Child: Sing.
Parent: Terrific! You did it!

WORD MAGIC GAME

The adult says a word. The child changes the beginning, middle, or ending sound to make a new word and says what changed. The adult changes the beginning, middle, or ending sound of the child’s word to make a new word and says what changed. Keep going back and forth. How far can you go? Use this example, reading letters shown between slash marks as sounds.
Parent: Map.
Child: Top. I changed /m/ to /t/.
Parent: Stop. I changed /t/ to /st/.
Child: Sep. I changed /s/ to /st/.
Parent: Stem. I changed /p/ to /m/.
Child: Them. I changed /st/ to /th/.
Parent: Hmm. I can’t think of a change that makes a real word. You win!

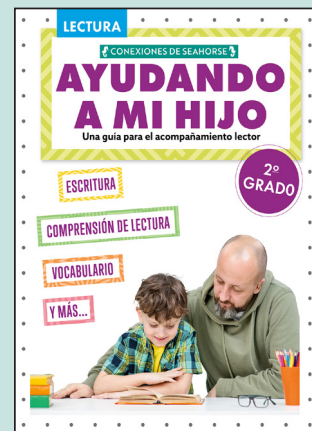

SYLLABLE HUNT

Look around the house to find things whose names have more than one syllable. Say the word and hold up a finger for each word part. For example, say “bedroom” for bedroom and “ma-ca-toon” for macaroni.
